

Maritime jurisdiction and boundaries in the Arctic region

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| Canada territorial sea and exclusive economic zone (EEZ)                                       | Russia territorial sea and EEZ                            | Straight baselines  |
| Canada continental shelf beyond 200 M (see note 2)   | Russia continental shelf beyond 200 M (note 5)            | Agreed boundary   |
| Denmark territorial sea and EEZ  | USA territorial sea and EEZ                               | Russia-USA maritime boundary (1990) in areas of overlapping shelves                       |
| Denmark continental shelf beyond 200 M (note 3)  | USA continental shelf beyond 200 M (note 7)               | Median line   |
| Iceland territorial sea and EEZ  | Norway-Russia Special Area (note 6)                       | Svalbard treaty area (note 10)  |
| Iceland continental shelf beyond 200 M (note 3)  | Overlapping Canada / USA EEZ and territorial sea (note 8) | Iceland-Norway joint zone (note 11)   |
| Norway territorial sea and EEZ / Fishery zone (Jan Mayen) / Fishery protection zone (Svalbard) | Russia-USA Eastern Special Area (note 9)                  | Main 'Northwest Passage' shipping routes through Canada claimed internal waters (note 12) |
| Norway continental shelf beyond 200 M (note 4)   | Seabed beyond any state's continental shelf (note 1)      | Internal waters   |
|  |   | Land  |
|  |   | North Pole  |

For an explanation of continental shelf submissions and other zones depicted on this map, please see briefing notes at https://r.durham.ac.uk/c3b13b\_Arctic\_Map\_Series